PUBLISHED THE ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR THE 2013 EDITION

The Rural Film Festival Corto e Fieno, that takes place every year in the Province of Novara, on the Lake Orta lakesides, will come back next September.

This year the Festival, born with the goal of promoting the relationship between man and the rural environment through the cinema, will be held on September 20, 21 and 22.

The announcements to participate in the fourth edition of the Festival have already been published:

those who want to submit their work, which will compete in the respective category - short-length films "Unripe Cinema" and "Orchard"; mid- and full-length films "Harvest" - can do it until July 1, 2013.

The Festival Corto e Fieno is open to all, professionals and amateurs. Every year the jury of the Festival announces the winning movie in each category and awards the winners.

It is possible to read the announcements of the three categories in the dedicated page of Corto e Fieno website. All the information about the Festival, the past editions and the last news, are finally available on the same website.
